Second Term English Test

"Mr. Bakhouche, More Than A Teacher"

A good teacher can teach you something that you will remember for a day, but a great teacher will teach you something that you will remember for the rest of life. Teachers are much like a second parent, shape a child's personality and future…I was lucky enough to find all these qualities in my teacher of English, Mr. Bakhouche.

Mr. Bakhouche has influenced who I am as a person. He taught me to work hard and always do my best. I would describe him as being active and cheerful. He demonstrated kindness and patience to every student in his class. Those are character traits that I feel I have improved upon because of him. He taught me to believe in myself because this leads to success.

He took his time to get to know each student as individual. He used various teaching style in effort to reach the needs of every one in his class. We often study by playing games which is an exciting and easy way to recapitulate all what we have learnt in class. Mr. Bakhouche has been a teacher who affected my life the most.
