

SECOND TERM TEST

November 22,2011 by George Couros

Yesterday, I received a notification in facebook that my old elementary school was soon to be demolished. I decided to write some of my memories about it.Leaving that school almost 23 years ago,I was amazed how much my time at the school has influenced what I am doing today.

One of my first memories as a child was my mom walking me to school for the first day.I still can visualize the jacket I was wearing.I remember playing football in the fields.we used to rush out and I remember my brother Alec always telling me how much I stunk from the sweat.I didn't care because I could have played all day.

In grade 3,my teacher Mrs Penrose inspired a love of music that I still have.she wrote on my report card : « Follow your dreams as you have the talent to take you anywhere you want to go. »Mr.Moshinski is probably one of the most influential teachers I have ever had.He was always hard on us,but it was done out of pure love.He used to sit and have some of the best conversations with us.They always meant so much to me.

Amazing that I can remember that much about elementary school.Hopefully my students will remember me as fondly.What I realize writing this is that it is never a building that is important,but people that make it feel like home.

Second Term Test

Text: Memories of My Childhood

I spent my childhood in a small village in China. In our village, we grew vegetables, planted paddy and caught fish in the river for our living. We also raised chickens and ducks. Sometimes we ate eggs. But mostly we used to sell them for money. The life in the village was simple but hard. I didn't have toys. The only amusement I could have was playing games with other children in front of the house in the evening. I had to go home when it got dark because there was no electricity at that time. We didn't have electricity inside the house, we used oil lamps to give light. Even though we used to read and write in the dark house. There was no television at that time.

When I was about 8 years old, China became a communist country. Thus my family's nightmare began. We had to live in a broken small house. They tortured my mother by asking her to kneel down on the shelf.. I begged as a child, I had to beg for food. "Please give me some food. I haven't had anything to eat since last night. Please be kind enough to give me some rice". Wearing a torn dress, I begged for food from door to door in the village. In order to survive, I would go to another door with tears in my eyes. "Poor little girl, you shouldn't suffer like this. Come in, quick; don't let other people see you." Then that person would close the door and give me food to eat. Now I live in Quebec, Canada. I can't speak French. But most people here are nice and the place is beautiful. But the memories of my childhood are still haunting me.

Second Term English Test

Duration: 1h

Jennifer Bricker, an American acrobat, was born without legs, and her parents abandoned her. She was then adopted by the Brickers, who taught her not to say "I can't." As a child, Jennifer was active in sports and decided to do gymnastics seriously. And at the age of 11, she won the Power Tumbling Championship in Illinois and was ranked the 4th at the Junior Olympic Games.

She was fascinated by the American gymnast Dominique Moceanu, the gold medal winner at the 1996 Olympics. And at the age of 16, Jennifer discovered that her idol was actually her elder sister. And Jennifer reunited with her biological family. Later she participated in the Britney Spears Circus Tour.

Her history is detailed in her memoir Everything Is Possible: Finding the Faith and Courage to Follow Your Dreams, which was a New York Times bestseller.

Hello, Mark!

Thank you for asking me about my future job. Well, when I was a child I dreamt of being a photographer because I used to like taking photos of friends and editing them. Then everything has changed since I visited a children hospital in my city. From that point, I decided to become a doctor to help people and stop their suffering.

As for now, I am concentrating my attention on finishing my studies at secondary school. Soon I will take the first important exam of my life - the baccalaureate exam. I won't stop working hard until I pass. As you know, I'm good at English, math, biology and physics. So, if I get it with distinction, I'll study at the Medical University and my dreams may come true. I will try to get more information about that from my teachers and career counselors at my school who are very supportive, gentle and helpful.

It is very hard to choose a career before you finish high school, but always keep in mind that it is important to follow your dream and be good at what you choose.

Best regards,
Paul

The Second Term English Test

A Strange Night

It was a cold and stormy night. Everybody went to bed earlier, but I decided to stay in the living room reading my new novel about mystery. Suddenly, something happened in the kitchen, I heard a strange noise. I stood up and went rapidly to see what was happening. Everything was calm and quiet. I came back to the living room and kept on reading my book. When I opened the second page, I heard a noise coming from the front window and a shadow disappearing in the night. Every time I tried to read my book something inexplicable happened. I was trying to find the odd thing that was producing the strange noises but I could find anything. It was the strangest night I have ever experienced.

Text:

Nelson's Memories

As boys, we were mostly left to our own devices. We played with toys we made ourselves. We molded animals and birds out of clay. We made ox-drawn sleighs out of tree branches. Nature was our playground.

One day, George Mbekela who was a retired teacher paid a visit to my mother. "Your son is a clever young fellow," he said. "He should go to school." My mother remained silent. No one in my family had ever attended school But my father, immediately decided that his youngest son should go to school.

The schoolhouse consisted of a single room, with a Western-style roof, on the other side of the hill from Qunu. I was seven years old, and on the day before I was to begin, my father took me aside and told me that I must be dressed properly for school. Until that time, I, like all the other boys in Qunu, had worn only a blanket, which was wrapped around one shoulder and pinned at the waist. My father took a pair of his trousers and cut them at the knee. He told me to put them on, which I did, I have never owned a suit I was prouder to wear than my father's cut-off pants.

On the first day of school, my teacher, Miss Mdingane, gave each of us an English name and said that was the name we would answer to in school. That day, Miss Mdingane told me that my new name was Nelson.

My favourite Teacher

I have got a very special teacher in my life. In my school life, I've changed a couple of schools and met with so many amazing teachers but never found someone like her. Yes, she is my favourite teacher. I'll write about her today.

Her name is Katrina Patel, from Delhi. I was a student of class five when I first met her. She was our class teacher. She used to teach us English . I have never seen someone speaking English well like her.

She was 26 years old . Her voice was really sweet and she used to recite poems and sing for us in the class. I really enjoyed that thing about her. She was very punctual and has never been late in class. Her teaching style was modern and a little bit different from another English teacher. She was innovative and modern.

She has got an amazing personality, which makes her attractive. Besides teaching, she used to write articles for local newspapers. Her favourite writing topic was history and I loved reading her writings. She was really motivating and marvellous personality that all the students liked. We respected her so much and she loved us, especially when we complete our homework.

I wish to meet Katrina again and spend some time with her.

Test of English

Read the following input carefully:

Hello,

My name is Paola. When I was a child I was a very shy girl. My family and I lived in a small village in Oaxaca, Mexico. I remember my best friend at elementary school, Manuela. When we met she was eight years old and I was nine. She was a beautiful girl. She was tall and plumb with long wavy hair and big hazel eyes. We were in the same class at school. We sat together and always played in the break, we call it recreo here in Mexico. Her family was very nice and they lived near my house, so we spent a lot of time together. We watched cartoons on TV , we played games, and did our homework together. In summer we were together too, we went swimming in the river when the weather was hot, we played with our toys, and played video games a lot – our favorite game was Mario Bros.- I remember the day when she broke her leg , that day we were running and jumping in the hill. I remember also the day while she was sleeping on the soil and I was digging a hole, and suddenly a big black dog appeared and we started shouting and crying. I will never forget the time we spent together. I will never forget how careful, helpful , joyful and bountiful she was.

What about you ? Can you tell me about your childhood memories ?

Sincerely ,Paola
